

147 Access to a Property Policy

1. Customer Statement

At Link Wentworth our customers and communities are at the centre of what we do. We are committed to:

- treating our customers with compassion and respect
- communicating clearly so that our customers can make informed decisions
- providing fair service by following the right process
- working openly with customers to find shared solutions
- following all relevant laws and regulations

2. Purpose

This policy sets out Link Wentworth's approach to accessing a property.

3. Scope

This policy applies to all Link Wentworth properties and programs.

4. Policy

In line with the Residential Tenancies Act 2010 (RTA), Link Wentworth respects the right of tenants to enjoy peace, comfort and privacy in their home. The RTA also provides Link Wentworth, as your landlord, with the right to enter your property in certain circumstances, including property care or tenant welfare concerns.

This policy outlines the reasons for which Link Wentworth will at times require access to a tenant's home. This policy also explains Link Wentworth's approach to sustaining tenancies and ensuring the wellbeing of tenant's by undertaking home visits.

Property inspections

Link Wentworth conducts a minimum of one (1) home visit in any 12-month period. Home visits are valuable for both tenants and Link Wentworth as they assist in identifying the following:

- the condition of the property and any safety concerns
- repairs and maintenance issues
- any support needs of the tenant or residents
- any tenancy or neighbourhood issues.

Reason, frequency and notice period of visits

The following table outlines reasons why Link Wentworth may visit a home and the required notice period.
